Plaintiffs

v.

THOMAS TAYLOR, Jr., and the
CITY OF BOSTON
Defendants

Civil Action
No. 05-11803MLW

PLAINTIFF COUNSEL ANDREW STOCKWELL-ALPERT'S ASSENTED TO MOTION FOR VERY SHORT CONTINUANCE

Plaintiff's counsel Andrew Stockwell-Alpert moves, with the assent of all other counsel for a very short continuance of the Scheduling Conference set for Thursday, April 24, 2008 at 3:00 P.M. to any date convenient to the Court in the following week or any week thereafter.

As grounds thereof, Attorney Stockwell-Alpert state that when the date was originally selected, he had completely forgotten that this date fell during the week of public school vacation. His daughter has no school and his wife, a school library teacher, also has the week off and plans were made to be out of state, partly to celebrate his mother's eighty-eighth birthday in New York with the family. This conference is the only in-court event standing in the way of these plans and counsel hopes that the Court would be willing to grant even the briefest of continuances so counsel can join the rest of his family.

Respectfully submitted

Andrew Stockwell-Alpert
